The Bridge Builder

-Will Allen Dromgoole 1934

An old man, going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim;
the sullen stream had no fears for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side
And build a bridge to span the tide.

“Old man,” said a fellow pilgrim near,
“You are wasting strength with building here;
Your journey will end with the ending day;

You never again must pass this way;
You have crossed the chasm deep and wide -
Why build you the bridge at the eventide?”

The builder lifted his old gray head:
“Good friend, in the path I have come,” he said
“There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall, be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him.”
